

CHITKARA
UNIVERSITY

THE NOBLE ACT OF BLOOD
DONATION

ANNUAL REPORT

JULY 2023 - JUNE 2024

Event Name	Blood Donation Camp
Venue	Sportorium Block, Indoor Stadium
Date	11 October, 2023
SDG & NEP Covered	4-Quality Education, 3-Good Health and Well Being NEP-1
Organized by	National Service Scheme, Chitkara University, Punjab
Number of Donors	47
Duration	One Day

Description of Event:

“By becoming the answer to someone's prayer, we often find the answer to our own.”

In a remarkable display of a humanitarian deed, the National Service Scheme, Chitkara University, Punjab conducted a Blood Donation Camp on 11th October, 2023. This honourable initiative was conducted in collaboration with the Homi Bhabha Cancer Hospital and Research Centre (Tata Memorial Centre), New Chandigarh, Punjab.

The effort was a collaborative one, with various departments within the university joining forces to support cancer patients in need of fresh blood. The Chitkara School of Health Sciences, Chitkara School of Planning and Architecture, Department of Nursing (CSHS), and Chitkara School of Psychology and Counselling came together for this virtuous cause.

The response from the students was nothing short of inspiring. They turned up in large numbers, each driven by the gallant purpose of contributing to this life-saving initiative. It was a heart-warming sight to witness the selflessness of these young individuals who readily donated their blood, understanding that their actions would directly impact the lives of those battling cancer. As a token of appreciation and to ensure the well-being of the donors, refreshments were provided by the university.

The presence of Dr. SC Sharma, Registrar, Chitkara University, Punjab, at the event added an additional layer of inspiration. His words of encouragement inspired everyone present to continue their selfless efforts.

The event served as a heart-warming reminder that unity and compassion can bring about remarkable change. The act of donating blood often referred to as the "Gift of Blood," goes beyond just a transfusion of this life-sustaining fluid. It symbolizes hope, a tangible demonstration of the power of collective action.

The Blood Donation Camp at Chitkara University stood as an emblem of positivity and kindness. It was a testament to the idea that even small acts of benevolence can create ripples of positive change, making the world a better place for all.

Students lining up to register themselves for blood donation

Young selfless hearts come forward for an honourable purpose

A successful blood donation camp in collaboration with Homi Bhabha Cancer Hospital and Research Centre

Event Name	Blood Donation Camp on National Youth Day
Venue	Sportorium Block, Indoor Stadium
Date	12th January, 2024
SDG & NEP Covered	3-Good Health and Well Being, NEP-1
Organized by	National Service Scheme, Chitkara University, Punjab
Number of Donors	102
Duration	One Day

Description of Event:

“We make a living by what we get, but we make a life by what we give.”

In commemoration of National Youth Day on 12 January 2024, the National Service Scheme, Chitkara University, Punjab, under the banner of Veins 2 Village organized the Blood Donation Camp. This collaborative effort, joined by the Department of Computer Application and Chitkara Business School, Chitkara University, Punjab in partnership with Rajindra Hospital, Patiala, resulted in a commendable turnout, transforming the occasion into a vibrant symbol of altruism.

Coinciding with National Youth Day, honouring the birthday of the revered Hindu monk, Swami Vivekananda, the event aimed at aligning with the ideals of the visionary monk. The celebration goes beyond a mere recognition of the day; it seeks to inspire and motivate the youth, channeling the ideas of Swami Vivekananda to contribute to a better future for the nation.

Following his footsteps in becoming pious and unselfish, a notable number of students enthusiastically participated, transforming the event into a bustling hub of selflessness. The remarkable contribution of 102 units of blood highlighted not only their eagerness but also the pivotal role the youth play in shaping a future marked by shared acts of kindness. In a gesture of goodwill, the students were also provided with refreshments of drinks and fruits. The collaboration with different university departments showcased a multidisciplinary approach, emphasizing the interconnectedness of various academic domains in addressing societal needs.

The significance of the day went beyond a simple blood donation drive; it reflected the youth's emotional investment in creating a future characterized by collective generosity. This act of kindness surpassed being just a numerical value; it went beyond to symbolize the youth's commitment to building a compassionate and engaged society. The event was a dynamic hub of altruism, echoing Swami Vivekananda's vision for a harmonious and progressive society.

Students activation in Blood Donation Camp

Students supporting the noble cause at Blood Donation Camp

A Group Photograph of Faculty for managing Blood donation Camp

Event Name	Blood Donation Camp
Venue	CII Northern Region Headquarters, Chandigarh
Date	11th April 2024
SDG & NEP Covered	3-Good Health and Well Being
Organized by	CII Chandigarh in collaboration with Office of Administration, Chitkara University, Punjab
Number of Donors	10
Duration	One Day

Description of Event:

"Blood donation is a great act of kindness. There is no substitute for human blood." - Dr. Charles Drew

On 11th April 2024, CII Chandigarh, in collaboration with Chitkara University, Punjab, organized a Blood Donation Camp. The event saw enthusiastic participation, especially from the Office of Administration, where 10 staff members stepped forward to donate blood, continuing their tradition of supporting this noble cause.

The camp began with a registration process where donors completed the necessary paperwork. Volunteers warmly greeted the donors and provided them with all the required information. To ensure the safety of all participants, a comprehensive medical checkup was conducted, including haemoglobin and blood pressure measurements, along with a general health assessment.

The medical equipment used during the camp was of top-notch quality, ensuring the highest standards of hygiene and safety. Qualified medical staff from local hospitals and blood banks facilitated the donation process, ensuring everything went smoothly and efficiently.

After donating, donors were given refreshments and advised to rest before resuming their daily activities. This thoughtful gesture ensured that all donors were comfortable and well taken care of post-donation. A dedicated team of volunteers supported the event, ensuring it ran smoothly from start to finish. Their coordination and commitment were commendable and contributed significantly to the camp's success.

Special thanks to the Office of Administration and CII Chandigarh for organizing - collaborating and supporting this noble cause. The leadership of Sqn. Ldr. Dr. Rina Angel, Head of the Office of Administration, were instrumental in making this event possible.

In conclusion, the Blood Donation Camp was a resounding success, highlighting the spirit of collaboration and community service at Chitkara University. The participation and dedication of the staff and volunteers underscore the university's commitment to social responsibility and public health.

Office of Administration staff members at CII centre for blood donation

Staff members supporting the noble cause at Blood Donation Camp

A Group Photograph of staff members with certificates after donating blood