SERVICE RULES

(For Teaching & Administrative Staff)

1. Preamble

Chitkara University, Punjab was established in the year 2010 by the Punjab State Legislature under “The Chitkara University Act, 2010”. It has been founded by Dr. Ashok Chitkara and Dr. Madhu Chitkara, who have been passionate teachers for more than 40 years now.

The University has at the centre of its philosophical core the commitment to excellence in education. It is the strong academic heritage of the University and firmness on matters of principles that the University has grown from strength to strength in such a short span of time.

The University’s punch line “Explore your Potential” reveals our commitment to help students, faculty & staff members to identify their talent, passion and career goals; create a value proposition that reflects who they are; enable them to market themselves; and help them to put their career plan into action. The intent is to prepare students, faculty & staff members to think out of the box and create their own definition of success.

2. Vision

To be globally recognized organization promoting academic excellence through interdisciplinary applied research and to expand realms of knowledge through innovation.

3. Mission

Chitkara University is an institution based on the philosophy of greatest good of the greatest number of people. Functioning of this University has set forth many milestones, which other similar institutions wish to travel. Its mission is:

- To carry out the academic process for achieving excellence through active teacher-student-industry participation.

- To promote research, innovation and entrepreneurship in collaboration with industries and laboratories.
- To inculcate high moral, ethical and professional standards amongst our students.
- To contribute to build a skilful society.

4. Values

The University emphasises on the following values: -

- Care – For us, welfare of our students and employees is our top priority.
- Supportive – We are supportive. We go an extra mile to support our stakeholders i.e. students, faculty member, parents, government and industry.
- Academic Excellence and Learning – We value excellence in learning by adopting suitable pedagogy and ensuring that our faculty remains in touch with the latest in the field. We also ensure that our students are able to compete at global level.
- Quality – We hold a strong commitment to high standards in all aspects of our educational activities, learning outcomes and support services. We seek to continuously strengthen the overall effectiveness of our operations.
- Faith – We treasure our ethos and our charter.
- Integrity – We conduct our operations and make our public representations in an ethical manner. We practice honesty and objectivity in dealing with our stakeholders.
- Diversity – We embrace and promote diversity in our policies and practices to prepare our learners to live and work successfully in an increasingly diverse society. We strive to create a learning environment by welcoming teachers, learners and staff who bring diverse ideas, values and backgrounds and beliefs to the learning and work environment.

- Leadership – We seek to develop responsible leaders committed to a common goal.
- Freedom of Inquiry and Expression – We support the rights of our people to freely inquire and express their opinions and suggestions. We involve and encourage an open exchange of ideas and seek inputs from one and all who wish to participate in the learning process of teaching.
- Communication – We believe in open, honest, respectful and timely communication at all levels.
- Accountability – We are accountable to all the stakeholders and the general public for fulfilling our mission in an appropriate manner by openly assessing the operations.
- Innovation – We provide imaginative and effective solutions to our challenges and innovative ways to fulfil our mission.
- Collaboration – We seek and nurture partnerships with educational institutions in India & abroad, research establishments, industry and the communities, to have an effective learning environment.
- Access to under privileged – We aim to promote social mobility by creating opportunities for the underprivileged, to gain access to our educational system. Hence, we hold a strong commitment to the inalienable right to their pursuit of happiness.
- Time Management – We aim to train our people to manage time effectively so that the right time is allocated to the right activities and specific time slots to activities as per their importance.
- Social and Cultural Sensitivity – We value and respect diversity and hence, we are committed to function effectively in various cultures. Our aim is to make our workforce sensitive to cultural differences.

5. Our Logo

Our logo depicts the arrows in soaring heights, promising everlasting progress.

It also illustrates the interlinking of our key stakeholders namely Students, Parents, Faculty, Alumni, Industry and Society as a whole, working in synergy towards a common goal which is the “Everlasting Success of Each Chitkara Student and creating them as responsible citizens”. The colour Red denotes Energy & Passion to “Explore Our Potential”.

6. Adherence to Management’s Philosophy

The Management expects members at all levels to maintain absolute integrity and devotion to duty, and to work with a high standard of initiative, efficiency and economy; and conduct themselves in an exemplary manner so as to enhance the image of the University for its growth into the most sought after organization to work for.

All the members of this organisation should ensure their integrity and devotion to duty irrespective of the post they hold or the rank they are in. As members of the organization of outstanding integrity, they should take care that their actions do not reflect adversely on the reputation of the organization and the highest ethical standards are followed, always. They are also expected to be law abiding and God fearing citizens of India.

7. Aims and Objectives of Laying Service Rules

It is important to communicate Management’s philosophy, ideas, suggestions and goals to the employees as it brings clarity and thereby affects the employees’ growth and the organization’s performance as well. The objective of these rules is to lay down a uniform policy for all the employees of this University with a view to minimize the use of discretionary powers & to reduce procedural delays and hold-ups. All the employees are expected to make themselves aware of these rules & regulations for most effective results.

8. Short Title, Application & Commencement

PART- 1: ENTRY

10. Categorization of Staff

All staff members of this University shall be grouped into two categories, viz.-

- Teaching Staff and
- Non-Teaching Staff

Teaching Staff:

Teachers of the University mean Pro Vice-Chancellors, Directors, Deans, Professors, Associate Professors, Assistant Professors and such other persons as may be appointed for imparting instruction or conducting research in the University and are designated as teachers. A teacher of the University shall be a whole-time salaried employee of the University and shall devote his/her whole-time to the University, and does not include honorary, visiting, part-time and ad-hoc teachers.

Non-Teaching Staff:

Non-Teaching employees of the University mean the Administrative functionaries and such other persons as may be appointed for supporting the functioning of the University. They are designated as Group A, B, C and D employees. A non-Teaching employee of the University shall also be a whole-time salaried employee of the University and shall devote his/her whole-time to the University.

11. Classification of Employees

Regular Employee: Means one who has been appointed in a substantive capacity (as distinguished from a temporary or officiating capacity) on a regular post and later formally confirmed in writing after the successful completion of the probationary period.

Probationer: Means one who is on probation and has not become regular employee after completion of period of his probation.

Temporary/ Contractual/ Ad hoc Employee: Means one who is appointed against a temporary post or for performing a particular job or for a temporary period of time as specified in his terms of appointment or contract of employment. His services shall automatically ceases after the expiry of the specified period or completion of the job.

Part-Time Employee: Means one who has been employed on any job/post on part-time basis.

Employment on a Project: Means one who has been employed for a project. If a position at any Institution is funded by a grant or a project, it is subject to the availability of funds. In the event that the grant or project funds are exhausted, or the grant or project is completed or cancelled, employment comes to an end.

12. Mode of Creation of Posts

On the basis of actual or increased workload in any Department, Head of that Department projects his demand for manpower before Department of Human Resource. This he does by filling a Manpower Requisition Form (MRF). HR then discusses the manpower requirement of that Department with the Registrar, who further initiates the process of creation of post as per the nature of workload and the directions of the Honourable Vice Chancellor.

After the approval is given by the Vice Chancellor for the creation of any post, the MRF is sent to the HR department to search and shortlist the meritorious candidates from the databank of eligible and qualified candidates against that post, within a stipulated time frame.

13. Selection Process

HR generates a pool of qualified, eligible, and meritorious candidates through various internal or external sources such as:

Internal Sources:

- Chitkara University Website

- Employee Referral
- In-House Data Bank
- Internal Job Posting or Internal Mobility
- Walk-in Interviews

External Sources:

- Job Portals
- Social Media Networks
- External Job Consultants
- Newspaper Advertisements
- Campus Hiring.

Calls are made to all the candidates to screen the final pool of most qualified candidates. The department head is then informed about the final candidate pool and is asked to set up an interview panel and finalize an interview date. The interview can either be in-person or on Skype.

The candidate is then informed about the interview schedule both on email and over the call. The candidate is given a list of documents required for the interview. If required, the candidate is informed about the specific topic for the demo lecture. On the interview day the candidate is asked to fill a Job Application Form and submit the photocopies of CV and all supporting documents.

14. Selection Committee

Selection to any post shall be made by a Selection Committee which shall consist of Vice Chancellor; Head of the Concerned Department, the Registrar, the HR Head and such other Specialists in the subject matter as may be nominated by the Registrar. The candidate shall undergo four rounds of interview:

- Face to Face interaction with the Dean/Head of the department.
- A demo lecture or presentation.
- A final round with the HR head.
- Final interaction with the Vice Chancellor.

After all the rounds, based on the final score and remarks of various interviewers, the candidate is informed about his/her selection either on the same day or within two working days. A rejected candidate may apply again after a period of three months.

15. Selection Criterion

Candidates belonging to all categories are equally considered for recruitment without any distinction as to religion, race, cast, sex or place of birth and only meritorious candidates, who qualify the prescribed selection criteria are selected and appointed. Chitkara University Act, 2010 contains no provision of reservation in recruitment of faculty and staff to this University. Further, no UGC norms existing at the time provide for reservation in recruitment of faculty and staff to private Universities.

16. Canvassing Outside Influence to Secure Employment

No candidate shall bring or attempt to bring any political or other outside influence on the appointing authority for securing appointment. If any such instance come to the notice where individual have approached any Authority or Staff for securing employment otherwise than on the basis of merit, such canvassing shall constitutes a violation of the conduct rules and shall permanently debar the candidate from the selection process. The candidates are, therefore, advised to refrain from such practice. They should not bring or attempt to bring any political or other outside influence to secure services in this University.

17. Use of Unfair Means to Secure Employment

A candidate who is or has been declared to be guilty of impersonation or submitting fabricated documents or documents which have been tempered with or of making statements which are incorrect or false or suppressing material information or, of using or attempting to use unfair means in the examination or interview or otherwise resorting to any other irregular or improper means whatsoever, may in addition to rendering himself liable to criminal prosecution be debarred either permanently or for a specified period from securing employment in this University.

18. Joining Time

A selected candidate is given an Offer Letter stating the basic terms of employment and expected date of joining. On the day of joining, the candidate is given his final Letter of Appointment and all required joining formalities are done.

19. Joining Formalities

Certain joining formalities are required to be completed by the employees before their appointment in the University. They are required to fill certain forms and submit copies of certain documents to HR Department for record purposes. Before joining they shall be required to sign and submit:

- i) Office of Information Technology Form (Annexure- 1)
- ii) Background Verification Form (Annexure- 2)

20. Terms and Conditions of Appointment

Every employee of the University shall be appointed on a written contract of appointment between the employee and the University in the format prescribed by the Ordinances. (Please see Annexure- 5).

21. First Appointment

On the first day of appointment, employee is to first report in the HR Department where certain formalities related to his Biometric Attendance Record shall be completed and then the employee will be routed to the Department where he is allotted. Hereafter, all the employees are expected to comply with the University working hours.

University fully complies with the UGC regulations in connection with the working days and holidays. Academic Calendar of the University is prepared at the beginning of every year and working/ non-working days are duly approved by Academic Council strictly to meet the minimum requirements of teaching days suggested by the UGC guidelines.

No employee is asked to stay beyond the normal working hours of the University. In exceptional circumstances, if any employee is asked to stay and work beyond normal working hours due to compelling work- related exigencies, special arrangements are made to drop that employee at his residence and compensatory off is granted in lieu within three days in the following week.

The employees shall be granted vacations as approved by the Vice- Chancellor from time to time. The minimum period of service to become eligible to avail vacation is one semester.

22. Orientation Programme

Orientation Programme is conducted once every year for those employees who have newly joined and have not attended the last Orientation Programme. It is compulsory for all the employees to attend this programme as per the UGC guidelines. Schedule and Venue of the Programme is conveyed well in advance by the HR Department to the employees. This programme helps in understanding the Organisational philosophy and work environment.

PART- 2: CAREER PROGRESSION

23. Progress Monitoring and Record Keeping

The Establishment Section maintains Personal File of each employee to record in service achievements along with all other records of that employee. So it is also important to notify HR Department/ Registrar Office of your scholastic achievements that may enhance your opportunities for advancement. In addition to this, University also maintains online records of all the employees through E-Service book. E- Service book contains details of employee in the fields as mentioned below:

- 1) Personal Details
- 2) Educational Details
- 3) Employment Details
- 4) Leave Records
- 5) Soft Copies of Documents

To ensure that personnel records are up to date, it is the employee's responsibility to promptly notify the Establishment Section in writing of any changes in name, home address, marital status, telephone number, e-mail and person to notify in case of emergency.

24. Probation

The minimum period of probation is one year extendable by a maximum period of one more year in case of unsatisfactory performance. On completing 11 months, a performance review form is shared with the School/ Department. Extension/ Confirmation/ Termination is decided based on the performance evaluation report shared by the School/Department Head during the 12th month of service. Employees are informed of probation extension/ employment confirmation or termination in writing.

25. Confirmation

On successful completion of probation period, an employee is confirmed in service and entitled to all the privileges of confirmed employees and subject to all the rules and regulations applicable to the regular employees of this University.

26. Annual Performance Appraisal

Chitkara University follows an appraisal cycle of November-October, every year. This covers two complete sessions of academic activities. Same cycle is followed for the non-teaching and supporting staff so that the complete activity is carried out for all the employees at the same time.

Annual Appraisal Process starts with self-review by an Employee followed by the performance review of that Employee by the School/ Department Head.

Final grading is then given by School/ Department Heads after discussing and justifying it to their team staff members. The grading from all the Schools/ Departments is received in a similar format. This helps to avoid any confusion and maintain uniformity in the appraisal process. Final grading is then shared with the Establishment Section.

27. Annual Increments

Establishment Section scrutinize the Personal Records of the employees as well the grading received from the Department Heads and discuss it with the Registrar for any amendments therein on the basis of Personal Records held with Establishment Section. Based on the outcomes of this discussion, increment amounts corresponding to grading allocated by School/ Department Head are authorized provided that there is not any serious observation in the personal records.

28. Final Authorization of Increments

Revised budget after authorization of increment is prepared and compared with the existing salary budget of preceding month. Difference in budget is discussed with the Vice Chancellor/ Finance Committee and finally approved as it is or after amendments in cases the Vice Chancellor so desires before final implementation.

Thus, Annual Increments are given after getting sanction from the Financial Committee of the University. Annual Increments can also be withheld in any appraisal year/ years, if the financial conditions do not allow or conditions that are because of act of God.

29. Promotions

Promotion is a matter of policy and not a legal obligation on the University. Chitkara University values creative endeavour, research and scholarship; teaching and learning; and engagement in many other forms. Promotion helps to ensure academic freedom and should promote creative, innovative pursuits. It brings with it both rights and responsibilities for faculty members as participants in furthering the missions of the University. Such policies are subject to change at the discretion of the Management.

Promotion Policy

University has formulated a promotion Policy for laying the criteria and procedures for faculty promotions. Objective of the Policy is to lay down standards for promotion of its Faculty members (from Assistant to Associate Professor and further to Professor). The University follows the "General Criteria in Evaluation of Faculty Members" which is in synchronization with the UGC norms.

Faculty Promotion Policy is attached as Annexure- 6 at the end of this Document, however; such policies are subject to change at the discretion of the Management.

30. Research Incentives

University wishes to establish itself as one of the pioneer research universities, expanding realms of knowledge in select focus areas. For this, University has framed a comprehensive policy to motivate the teachers as well as the students to devote their time and energy for socially useful research projects. Various incentives are given to encourage and promote the culture of research amongst the staff and indirectly amongst students. Incentives have been divided into two categories i.e. cash incentives and bonus points.

Objective of offering these incentives is to encourage staff and students of this University to:

- Publish high quality and original research articles and thus have more citations per article.

- File and publish patents having good commercialization potential.
- Write and submit research proposal inviting extramural funding and establish state-of-art research facility.
- Provide consultancy services to industry and other organizations.

Detailed Policy guidelines on the research incentives are attached as Annexure-7 for reference of all those who are interested in research work.

31. Qualification Enhancement Support

University provides opportunities for career growth to employees by improving their educational qualifications and has framed clear cut policies in this regard. Employees are supported to enhance their educational qualifications and research experience. The scholarships are provided on a competitive basis to study the Master of Business Administration in Sales & Marketing and PhD Programmes at Chitkara University. Detailed Policy guidelines are attached at the end of this Document as Annexure-8 and Annexure-9. Purpose is to motivate the employees for the improvement of their qualifications so that they may avail opportunities of career enhancement in this University.

PART- 3: EMPLOYEE WELFARE

32. Salaries

Salaries to the staff are credited in time, directly to their bank accounts. Salaries are paid monthly through direct bank transfer. Each member should provide complete details along with supporting documentary evidence to ensure that the TDS (tax deducted at source) can be calculated correctly.

Both, teaching and non-teaching staff are paid in accordance with the norms prescribed by UGC and Government of Punjab. Pay scales are revised from time to time in accordance with University Ordinances and as per guidelines of UGC and Government of Punjab. No any other kind of deductions is made from the salaries except statutory deductions, permitted by law.

The members appointed by the University shall be in the grades of Professor, Associate Professor, or Assistant Professor in so far as they take part in the teaching in the University and shall, except in the case of re-employed teachers and others whose terms of appointment specify otherwise, be paid salaries on such pay-scales, or at such stage of such pay-scales and allowances, as the University may adopt or decide from time to time, after taking into consideration the UGC guidelines.

33. Employees Provident Fund

Employees Provident Fund contribution of all the employees of this University whose pay is less than Fifteen Thousand Rupees per month at the time of joining is duly deducted at prescribed rates and deposited in the Office of Provident Fund Commissioner along with the Employer's contribution.

EPF deduction of those employees whose joining pay exceeds maximum ceiling limit as stated above was stopped w.e.f. 1st September 2014 as per the latest instructions issued on this subject by Government of India, Ministry of Labour and Employment; vide notification ref. G.S.R. 608 (E), dated 22nd August 2014.

All eligible employees shall subscribe to the provident fund scheme and shall contribute from their salary at a rate stipulated by the Employees Provident Fund and the Miscellaneous Provision Act, 1952 and rules made there under, as may be applicable from time to time. The University shall contribute to the Provident Fund the same amount, as is deducted from the salary of the employees.

34. Employee State Insurance Facility

Employee State Insurance benefit has been extended to all the eligible employees of Chitkara University as per the guidelines prescribed by the Employee State Insurance Corporation under Ministry of Labour and Employment.

Currently, ESI facility is mandatory for the employees drawing monthly salary less than or equal to Rs. 21000/- (Twenty One Thousand Rupees). ESI contribution of all the employees of this University whose pay is less than Rs. 21000/- (Twenty One Thousand rupees) per month at the time of joining is duly deducted at prescribed rate and deposited with Employees State Insurance Corporation along with the Employer's contribution.

ESI contribution of those employees whose joining pay exceeds maximum ceiling limit as stated above is not deducted as per the latest instructions issued on this subject by Government of India, Ministry of Labour and Employment; vide notification ref. G.S.R. 957(E), dated 06th October 2016.

ESI facility helps the employees to avail all medical facilities from any ESI hospitals free of cost. Eligible female employees also get all the benefits related to maternity leave from the ESI hospital. Chitkara University contributes at the rate of 3.25% of the wages paid in respect of the employees in every wage period.

35. Gratuity

The educational institutions employing 10 or more persons on any day in the preceding 12 months have been covered by the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972 vide Notification No. S.O. F.No. S- 42013/ 1/ 95.SS- II dated 3rd April 1997. So, Gratuity shall be paid to all the employees according to the provisions of the payment of Gratuity Act, 1972 and amendments thereof. Gratuity shall be payable to an employee on the cessation of his employment:-

- (a) On superannuation
- (b) On his retirement or resignation, or
- (c) On his death or disablement due to accident or disease.

Provided that, the employee should have rendered continuous service for not less than five years for being eligible for gratuity, however, the completion of continuous service of five years shall not be necessary where the termination of employment of any employee is due to death or disablement. "Disablement" means such disablement as incapacitates an employee for the work that (s)/ he was capable of performing before the accident or disease resulting in such disablement.

Further provided that, an employee who has put in 240 days' service during the fifth year shall be deemed to have completed continuous five years of service. However, while calculating the total continuous service, any period of leave without pay, unauthorized absence, break in service etc. is not to be taken into account for the purpose of payment of gratuity.

36. Accidental Group Insurance

University has covered all the staff members through accidental group insurance scheme since 2011. University every year pays more than Rupees Twelve Lakh as insurance premium to renew this Accidental Group Insurance Policy. So far many employees have been benefitted under this policy. All the employees are covered under GPA insurance right from the day of their joining. All employees are covered for:

- Permanent Partial Disablement
- Permanent Total Disablement
- Severance/ loss of major body parts
- Death

Expenses incurred by the employees for in-patient and out-patient are covered under this scheme means medical services and supplies which are recommended by the attending physician are reimbursed.

37. Conveyance Facility

University Transport Department runs buses on no profit, no loss basis. University provides free conveyance facility to its entire faculty and all other employees. Endeavour is to cover wide area and pick- up the employees from the points nearest to their residences.

The buses run from various points throughout the tri-city to reach the campus at around 08:45 a.m. and leave the campus at around 04:35p.m. For availing conveyance facility the interested employees should visit the University Transport Office and enquire about the bus route/ bus stop to his/ her residence. If suitable route is found, the staff member should fill up the application form and apply for the bus pass. No staff member shall be allowed to avail the transportation service without the bus pass. Further, University buses will only stop at designated locations and employees are liable to obey road safety rules for availing this facility.

The Dean/Directors are provided with dedicated AC cabs for their official commute.

38. Working Days and Holidays

University complies with the UGC regulations in regard to working days. Academic Calendar of the University is prepared at the beginning of every year and working/ non-working days are duly approved by Academic Council strictly to meet the minimum requirements of teaching days suggested by the UGC guidelines.

39. Working Hours

No employee is asked to stay beyond the normal working hours of the University. University is fully equipped with Biometric Attendance Record System and all the employees are expected to comply with the University working hours. In exceptional circumstances, an employee may be asked to stay and work beyond normal working hours due to compelling work-related exigencies.

40. Leave- General Rules

University has provision of different kinds of leave in its Ordinances. Following Important Rules are laid down in regard to leave entitlements of the employees:

47. Study/Sabbatical Leave Rules

Provision of Study/ Sabbatical Leave has been introduced to encourage the employees of Chitkara University to enhance their professional knowledge and improve their teaching skills through participation in research or professional development programs.

Eligibility

Subject to the condition that total number of employees on Study Leave including applicant does not exceed 5% of the total strength of the employees in that School/ College (In case of fraction as %, rounded off to the next digit).

- (a) All full-time employees of Chitkara University are eligible to apply for the Study Leave provided that they have rendered minimum three years of continuous service in this University.
- (b) Any employee having extra ordinary performance consistently may be given the Study/ Sabbatical leave even if the stipulated 5% of his/her School/College are already on leave. This will be effective only on the approval of the Vice- Chancellor.

- (c) Further, Study/Sabbatical Leave can be availed only once during the entire period of service in this University. Any employee who has availed a Study/Sabbatical Leave will not be entitled for it again during his/her full tenure.
- (d) Study/ Sabbatical leave shall not be granted to those employees who are due to retire within three years of the date on which they are expected to return from the study leave.

Undertaking

As the provision of Study Leave is meant for the benefit of both, i.e. the employees and the University as well; therefore, employees proceeding on Study/ Sabbatical Leave are expected only to enhance their educational qualifications and not to accept any employment either temporary or of permanent nature during the period of Study Leave; though they may receive the benefit of scholarships or fellowships during that period.

Further, only those employees will be eligible to apply for the Study/ Sabbatical Leave who wish to continue their services in this University for at least two years after completion of the Study Leave and they will have to furnish an undertaking to this effect before proceeding on Study Leave. Please see Annexure- 10 for the format of the undertaking.

Duration

Generally, Study/ Sabbatical Leave shall not be sanctioned for more than two years. In exceptional circumstances, where the course is of longer duration, it may be sanctioned for one additional year (excluding paid training period, if any). In such condition, the approval has to be only from the Vice Chancellor. However, in no case it shall exceed three years.

Extension

No extension in Study/Sabbatical Leave shall be permitted to those employees who have availed either of these leaves for three years at one stretch. Study Leave can't be merged with any other kind of leave.

Procedure to Apply

Any employee who is eligible to apply and who wishes to proceed on Study/ Sabbatical Leave must plan well in advance and must apply at least six months in advance so that the School/ College/ University may get sufficient time to make alternative arrangements for the duties and responsibilities being performed by the applicant.

All applications for such leave shall be addressed to the Registrar who shall have the Authority to approve such applications on the recommendations of the Dean/ Head of the School/ College. Further, all such applications must be accompanied by necessary documents in support and undertaking.

On Reporting Back

On return from Study Leave, an employee may be shifted to any other School/ College or he may be assigned any other task related to the academic or administrative activities of the University and the Management shall have the right to continue with the arrangements already made in the Department in the absence of employee on Study Leave, in the interest of University or its students.

On Failure to Report Back

In case, any employee fails to report back after the expiry of his/her Study/ Sabbatical Leave and overstays the Leave beyond the sanctioned period or beyond the extended period, as the case may be-

- (a) He/she shall not be permitted to join back except on the recommendations of the Vice Chancellor. The Vice- Chancellor may regularize the overstayed Study Leave up to maximum period of one week on a written request being made by the defaulting employee to regularize the same on just and reasonable grounds.
- (b) Overstay of Study/ Sabbatical Leave beyond the period of one week shall be permitted only in exceptional circumstances and all such cases shall be regularized only after representation before and to the satisfaction of the VC.

- (c) The VC shall be the extreme authority to take disciplinary action against the employee if it is satisfied that the employee has overstayed his Study/ sabbatical Leave without any satisfactory explanation.

Failure to Serve Compulsory Period:

In case, an employee resigns before completion of bond period of two years, in breach of the conditions of undertaking signed by him, his period of Study Leave shall automatically be treated as a break in Service for all purposes and such period shall be excluded for the purpose of calculating total service rendered by the employee in this University.

48. Leave without Pay

Leave without pay may be granted to a permanent or probationary full- or part-time employee for various reasons, including family and medical leave, extended educational purpose, unforeseen reasons or on compassionate grounds. Requests for these leaves without pay require approval by the dean and appropriate authority only after the verification of the reason of the leave.

49. Duty Leave

On duty leave should be given to the employee if the employee doesn't come to the office because of some work related to an office outside the office. The Duty Leave is limited to certain profiles only as per the requirement of the job, which is pre-approved.

50. Fee Waiver/ Scholarship to Employee Wards

This policy was introduced to give a benefit to the wards of staff members of the University. As per this policy, 25% or Rs. 25000/- (whichever is less) rebate is given in the tuition fee of the wards of staff members of Chitkara University. Employees may visit HR Department to get the details of this Policy.

51. Travel Allowance / Daily Allowance Rules

These rules are laid down to assist each employee in knowing his/ her authorization and limit of expenditure while on official tour. Although all possible efforts have been made to lay down the rates of DA, which would make an employee comfortable while at the outstation, no employee is expected to use outstations duty as the source of income.

Definition: Any outstation journey on official authorization shall be deemed as ‘on tour’. This excludes duty to satellite cities towns adjoining Head Quarters. Journey beyond municipal limits of the Head Quarters shall be considered as ‘on tour’ only if night stay is involved and the duty has been duly approved.

- (a) All employees shall ensure a healthy and safe work environment that is free from harassment of any kind or form.
- (b) All employees are prohibited from indulging in harassment of any kind or form -whether physical, verbal, psychological, or sexual in nature. This includes all types of unwelcome, offensive, demeaning and intimidating behaviours against University employees or any other internal and external stakeholders, whether explicit or implicit.
- (c) In case of sexual harassment, a committee has been formed. The detail of the committee is also attached. This Committee will hold a meeting with the Complainant within five working days of the receipt of the complaint, but no later than seven working days in any case.
- (d) The Complainant can also submit any corroborative material with a documentary proof, oral or written material, etc., to substantiate his / her complaint.

- (e) If the Complainant does not wish to depose personally due to embarrassment of narration of event, a lady officer for lady employees involved and a male officer for male employees, involved shall meet and record the statement.
- (f) All proceedings of the Grievance Committee shall be recorded in writing and will have to be signed by the Chairperson, Complainant and the Accused. All the proceedings of such cases are elaborated in the first Ordinances of Chitkara University.
- (g) Verbal and/or physical threats against University, students/employees or clients/ employees will not be tolerated.
- (h) If any employee is found to have resorted to harassment towards any student, employee or any other internal and external stakeholder, strict disciplinary action shall be taken in such case.
- (i) Additionally, if an employee is harassed by another employee, visitor, vendor, or any other associate while at work, disciplinary action shall be taken as per the guidelines of “Code of Conduct” policy.

57. Internal Complaints Committee (ICC)

In pursuance of UGC (Prevention, prohibition, and redressal of sexual harassment of women employees and students in higher educational institutions) Regulations, 2015 to be read with sexual harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act 2013, Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) is constituted as under to deal with complaints relating to sexual harassment at workplace.

58. Disciplinary Action for Violation of Code of Conduct

Disciplinary Actions

Disciplinary action will be administered on a uniform basis. Each offense must be judged on its own seriousness, with consideration given to the employee's past record, as well as the job description of the individual involved.

Supervisors will notify the respective Director prior to taking any disciplinary action. In instances where offenses are of such seriousness as to endanger the safety of persons or property or to cause intolerable disruptions to essential work, the Registrar / Vice Chancellor have the authority to suspend or dismiss an employee immediately. If the employee is suspended, it will be done without pay.

What Constitutes Misconduct?

Lapses in the code of conduct of any employee or deviations from the instructions given in the above Statutes, Ordinances, Regulations, Rules, Directions and Office Orders of the University shall constitute misconduct on the part of that employee. Any misconduct on the part of any employees of this University shall be viewed very seriously and shall be dealt according to the nature and circumstances of each case and the gravity of such misconduct.

Disciplinary Authorities

Following Authorities are hereby designated as “Disciplinary Authorities” of the University under this Policy:

- (i) The Vice Chancellor / Pro Vice Chancellor
- (ii) The Registrar
- (iii) The Dean/Director/Head of the Concerned Schools / Departments

All the above Disciplinary Authorities are empowered under this Policy to take disciplinary action and pass appropriate disciplinary orders within their powers and capacity against the proved misconduct of an employee.

Disciplinary Powers

All powers relating to discipline and disciplinary action in relation to the employees shall vest in the Vice-Chancellor.

Delegation of Disciplinary Powers

The Vice-Chancellor, under this Policy, has delegated all powers to the Registrar. Registrar shall be hereby empowered to pass any disciplinary order including the order terminating a temporary/contractual/regular employee or any other order which may have the effect of financial nature on the employee's career. He shall exercise such powers in consent of the Vice- Chancellor.

The Pro-Vice Chancellor / Deans / Directors / HODs shall be empowered to initiate / suggest a disciplinary action on the employee. The Pro-Vice Chancellor/ Deans / Directors / HODs can issue show cause notice seeking clarification for violation of code of conduct. However, any further action has to be finalized in consultation with the Registrar. The final order shall be issued by the Registrar in consent of the Vice-Chancellor. No Authority, Officer or Employee of this University other than the Designated Disciplinary Authorities, as specified above shall be empowered to pass any written disciplinary order awarding punishment or imposing penalty on any employee for any reason, whatsoever.

Disciplinary Actions in case of the Verbal or Physical fight between the Support Staff-

In all such cases following actions to be taken-

1. Supervisors will notify the respective Director/Department Head and the staff involved shall be called for a meeting and asked for an explanation.
2. A verbal warning shall be issued to the staff in case of a verbal fight and a written warning shall be issued in case of physical fight, subject to the condition that it was the first case.
3. In case of a repetitive involvement or serious damage to the other person involved or the university property, following actions shall be taken against the staff in question-
 - Reassignment to other department.
 - Reduction in Pay
 - Suspension/Termination of the Employment

Details of disciplinary actions is mentioned below-

Verbal Reprimand

The supervisor is responsible for maintaining the proper conduct and discipline of employees under his/her supervision. When some action is necessary, the supervisor may give the employee a verbal reprimand. The supervisor will talk privately with the employee and do the following:

- (a) Review with the employee exactly what is expected of him/her and why.
- (b) Explain to the employee how he/she has not met the requirements and why his/her conduct has been unacceptable.
- (c) Allow the employee to give the reasons for his/her actions or failure.
- (d) Make a memorandum of this interview and verbal reprimand. Send a copy to the Office of Human Resources.

Written Reprimand

- (a) The supervisor will review again the points covered in the verbal warning that must be corrected and serve a strong warning that a change must be made within the given period of time.
- (b) Tell the employee he/she will receive a letter covering the significant points of the discussion.
- (c) Review with the Department Head the contents of the letter prior to the delivery of the letter to the employee by the supervisor.
- (d) Send a copy to the Office of Human Resources.

Reassignment

- (a) Reassignment is the intra-departmental movement of an employee from one position to another position having the same pay grade.
- (b) The Registrar / Vice Chancellor is authorized to effect reassignments within his / her own areas of responsibility. In order to effect this type of action, there must be a vacant position available.
- (c) If a reassignment is recommended by the Registrar / Vice Chancellor from one area within his / her responsibility to another responsibility, both parties must agree to this reassignment.
- (d) If the decision to reassign an employee is approved, the Registrar / Vice Chancellor, Department Head and Supervisor will review with the employee the details of the case prior to delivery of the letter of reassignment.

- (e) A copy of the letter will be sent to the Office of Director of Human Resources.

Demotion

- (a) Employees may be demoted to a position classified at a lower grade, when termination is not in the best interest of the University. (This demotion may be with or without a pay reduction.)
- (b) The Department head has delegated his authority to demote to the employee. This decision will be made after having received a written summary of the case which will be prepared by the supervisor and reviewed with the Registrar/Vice Chancellor.
- (c) After the decision to demote is made, the Registrar/Vice Chancellor, Department Head and Supervisor will review with the employee the details of the case prior to the delivery of the letter of demotion.
- (d) A copy of the letter will be sent to the Office of Human Resources.

Reduction in Pay

- (a) The Registrar/Vice Presidents are authorized to effect reductions in pay. A written summary of the case will be prepared by the supervisor, reviewed by the Department Head and submitted to the Registrar/Vice Chancellor prior to his/her taking any action.
- (b) Upon reaching a decision to reduce the pay of the employee, the Registrar/Vice Chancellor, Department Head and Supervisor will review with the employee the details of the case prior to delivery of the letter of pay reduction.
- (c) A copy of the letter will be sent to the Office of Human Resources.

Suspension

- (a) Employees may be suspended from work in proportion to the seriousness of the offense.

- (b) All Suspensions are without pay.
- (c) The Registrar/Vice Chancellor are authorized to suspend the employee. A written summary of the case will be prepared by the supervisor, reviewed by the Department Head and submitted to the Registrar/ Vice Chancellor prior to his/her taking any action.

Upon reaching a decision to suspend the employee, the Registrar/ Vice Chancellor, Department Head and Supervisor will review with the employee the details of the case prior to delivery of the letter of suspension.

- (d) A copy of the letter will be sent to the Office of Human Resources.

Dismissal

- (a) Dismissal is the most serious disciplinary action and should be taken only after a careful review of the case.
- (b) A written summary of the case will be prepared by the Supervisor, reviewed with the Department Head and the Registrar/Vice Chancellor.
- (c) After the decision to dismiss is reached, the Registrar/Vice Chancellor, Department Head and the Supervisor will give the employee written notice of the decision to dismiss him/her which includes notification of the right to appeal if he/she is a permanent employee.
- (d) The written Termination Notice will be signed by the Registrar/Vice Chancellor. A copy is forwarded to the Office of Human Resources.

Immediate Suspension or Dismissal

- (a) Occasions may arise where personal offenses are of such seriousness as to endanger the safety of persons or property or to cause intolerable disruptions to essential work. In such instances, an employee will be suspended or dismissed immediately. When such abrupt disciplinary action is deemed to be necessary, the following steps will be taken by the supervisor or the responsible official involved.

- (b) He/She will tell the employee to leave the State property at once and either report back to the supervisor the following day or remain away until further notice. In extreme emergencies, he/she may call upon law enforcement officials to carry out the removal of the offending employee.
- (c) If an immediate dismissal is made, all facts leading to the dismissal must be clearly understood by the supervisor, Department Head and the Registrar/Vice Chancellor.
- (d) A written summary will be prepared giving the circumstances and facts which led to the dismissal and a copy filed in the employee's personnel folder with the Office of Human Resources.
- (e) After consultation with the Registrar/Vice Chancellor, official written confirmation of the discharge, suspension or other action taken will be given to the employee including the reason for dismissal.

Conclusion of the Disciplinary Proceedings

On conclusion of disciplinary proceedings, action proposed to be taken against the employee and particulars of the grounds on which such action is proposed to be taken shall be communicated to the concerned employee along with the copies of the supporting documents on which the Disciplinary Authorities rely and reasonable opportunity shall be provided to him of being heard before taking any disciplinary action.

PART- 5: EMPLOYEE EXIT

59. Retirement

Every employee confirmed in the service of the University, shall subject to the physical and mental fitness and satisfactory performance, shall continue in such service until the age as prescribed by the University Rules. The age of superannuation for various categories of employees at Chitkara University, Punjab is as below:

S. No.	Designation	Age of Retirement
1	Vice Chancellor	70 years
2	Registrar / Pro Vice-Chancellor	65 years
3	Controller of Examination	65 years
4	Chief Finance Officer	65 years
5	Teaching Staff including Deans	65 years
6	Administrative Staff and other Staff	58 years

In case the date of superannuation of an employee falls at any time during the academic session, the Board of Management may on the recommendation of the Vice-Chancellor, re-employ the employee for any period up to the end of the academic session, with a view not to disturb the teaching work of the School. In special cases, a teacher on his/her attaining the age of superannuation may be re-employed on a contract as approved by the Board of Management.

60. Resignation

At any time an employee may leave this service after giving one month's notice or by payment of salary in lieu of the unexpired notice period. However, in case of teaching staff, resignation may not be accepted in between the academic session. The management keeping the students' interests in view, may not permit a faculty-member to leave the University/ Institute during the ongoing semester if teaching commitments on his/ her part are pending. No leave, even when due, will be availed during the one month's notice period of resignation from the University's service.

61. Termination

University, in the like way, may dispense with a member's services after giving one month's notice or by payment of one month's salary in lieu thereof. However, no notice or salary in lieu of notice shall be necessary if the services are dispensed with by the competent authority for misconduct, or due to loss of confidence in the employee.

62. Abandonment & Automatic Termination

If an employee absents himself from duty without leave or prior permission for a continuous period exceeding thirty consecutive working days, the competent authority will draw an irresistible presumption that by remaining so absent continuously and in an unauthorized way, he/she has thus abandoned the job. Such abandonment of service shall be treated as resignation from the service and not as termination by the University.

In case of such employee returns within forty five days and gives proper explanation for his absence without leave to the satisfaction of the university authorities, the lapse may be condoned and he/she may be regularized with continuity of service or he may be re-employed in his post with/ without continuity of service, entirely at the discretion of the competent authority; and the member shall have no right to any claim, or challenge the discretion of the competent authority in this regard.

63. Relieving Formalities

Handing Over of Charge:

Employee will hand over the charge of the duties and responsibilities of his post to his successor or to the Head of Department in the absence of the successor. All other inventory items of the service in possession, custody or charge at the time of cessation of employment, such as identity card, data-bases, files, books, magazines, reports & records, documents, manual, audio/video tapes, floppies/ discs, tools, instruments, etc. to be handed over to the concerned persons.

No Dues Certificate:

At the time of leaving services, the employee shall be issued a “No Dues Certificate”, on which he shall have to take clearance from all the concerned Departments. Accounts Department will release last payment and will settle all other outstanding dues finally only after submission of the “No Dues Certificate”. The value of all shortages and/or damages to any property shall be recoverable from the employee after adjustment against whatever dues are payable to him. Failure on the part of the employee to hand over his charge and take no dues certificate shall entitle the competent authority to withhold the employee’s dues and to take such other action as may be deemed fit, which also includes the initiation of legal proceedings in a court of law.

Exit Interview Questionnaire:

The outgoing employees are also required to fill an Exit Interview Questionnaire as well. The aim of the exit questionnaire is to assess the opinions of staff leaving employment service and to gain an insight into how Chitkara University is perceived as an employer.

64. Non-Compliance of Rules/Regulations

Non-compliance of rules/regulations on account of ignorance of the orders is inexcusable. All the Teaching & Non-Teaching members shall acquaint themselves with these Service Rules.

These Service rules will be effective from 01st July 2014 and supersede all rules issued earlier in this regard.

Release date: 18th June 2014.

Faculty Promotion Policy under CAS

Reason for this Policy

This policy describes the criteria and procedures for attaining faculty promotion at Chitkara University.

Scope of this Policy

Chitkara University has adopted rigorous standards for promotion of its Faculty members (from Assistant to Associate Professor and further to Professor). The University follows the "General Criteria in Evaluation of Faculty Members" which is in synchronization with the UGC norms.

Statement of Policy

Promotion is a matter of policy and not a legal obligation on the University. Chitkara University values creative endeavour, research and scholarship; teaching and learning; and engagement in many other forms. Promotion helps to ensure academic freedom and should promote creative, innovative pursuits. It brings with it both rights and responsibilities for faculty members as participants in furthering the missions of the University. Such policies are subject to change at the discretion of the Management.

Criteria for Faculty Promotion

The quality of teaching is a primary consideration in the retention and promotion of faculty members. Effective teaching includes expressive presentation of the subject matter, the ability to motivate and involve students in the learning process, an appropriate respect for the intellectual needs of students, and providing timely, fair and objective assessment of student performance.

Given the dynamic and fast changing nature of all disciplines, the faculty member's teaching must incorporate up to date developments in their respective fields. Providing a stimulating atmosphere within which students can learn and grow intellectually is also a major professional contribution the faculty member should make to the development of students. This includes frequent and active presence on campus, student counselling and advising, and participation in activities that promote interaction between student life and the academic environment.

Candidates for tenure and/or promotion to Associate Professor must demonstrate that they have achieved excellence in teaching, research and innovation. Similarly, Candidates for promotion to Professor must demonstrate a sustained record of excellence in teaching, research and innovation.

To be considered for promotion, a faculty member must meet the criteria set under CAS promotion criteria by UGC in regulations on minimum qualifications for appointment of teachers and other academic staff in Universities & Colleges and measures for the maintenance of standards in higher education, 2018 and as amended from time to time.

HR Buddy Programme-SOPs

Who is HR Buddy?

An HR buddy is someone who associates with a new employee during his/her first 3 months of employment. While primarily responsible for offering advice and guidance regarding the day-to-day aspects of working at Chitkara University, the buddy may also offer encouragement and knowledge resources, as they help introduce the new employee to the Chitkara University culture.

What A Buddy Is Not:

A buddy shall not be required to assume any of the following roles:

1. Mentor: Someone, typically more experienced, who is involved with the all-round development of an individual (personal and professional).
2. Supervisor: Someone responsible for the new employee's job performance/ career/ disciplinary action. Only the department head would be responsible for such things.

Objectives of HR Buddy Program:

- Support new employees to ensure that they feel welcomed and settled into their role by introducing them to various aspects of the University community.
- Encourage communication and prevent new employee feeling isolated.
- Ensure that routine queries regarding basic operational issues are dealt with expeditiously.
- Taking the new joinee for lunch or coffee in their first week.
- Listening to the basic concerns of a new joinee and help them to connect with other staff members.
- Orienting them to the campus, teams and the local workspace practices and organizational culture within 4-5 days of their joining.

- Increase the new employee's self-confidence allowing him/her to focus on adding value to the organization.

Buddy Selection Criteria:

HR in collaboration with the Department Heads is responsible for selecting a buddy for their new employee. Selections should be based on the following characteristics:

- Is proud of Chitkara University and must have contributed well in the past.
- Wants to be a buddy.
- Is skilled and has knowledge of the new employee's job.
- Is a peer of the new employee.
- Has patience and good communication and interpersonal skills.
- Is well regarded and accepted by current employees.
- Must have some time to be accessible to the new employee.

Tips for Buddies:

- Don't worry about being perceived as the expert. Focus your attention on the new employee.
- Be patient: It takes time to develop a relationship. Don't try to cover everything right away. Be positive: New employees will grow into their roles if given proper reinforcement.
- Don't try to force a relationship.
- Try to identify the new employee's personality and communication style and adapt accordingly.
- Don't be judgmental. Simply offer feedback. Maintain a good attitude and a teaching spirit

Responsibilities of HR Buddy:

- Contact and meet with the new employee on Day 1.
- Establish a rapport with the new employee.

- Have lunch with the new employee at twice in a month.
- Act as an informational resource on policies and procedures.
- Help socialize the new employee to CU's guidelines, norms and culture.
- Answer general/routine questions.
- Make introductions.
- Ensure an open communication between the new employee and the buddy, respecting confidentiality.
- Follow up with the new employee on a weekly basis.

Benefits for HR Buddy Programme	Benefits for New Employees	Benefits for Chitkara University
Recognition for new role	One on One Assistance	Increased employee motivation and retention
